Oracle cards are the vehicle that brought Ann of the Silver Peacock from stressed-out working mother and wife to the accomplished reader she is today. Needing comfort and encouragement, Ann began seeking out books with the sort of messages and artwork her soul craved. Eventually, she was led to Doreen Virtue's Healing with the Angels cards. "I found the oracle cards to be convenient, easy to use, and right on target." Ann has since worked with many teachers and taken many psychic development classes, eventually gaining the confidence and experience to offer her talents to the public.

She now works with many different decks (seven at the moment, but she continues to add more), each allowing her to focus in on the topics relevant to the specific needs of each client. "I'm always adding new decks to my library to expand options for my guests. Once the card is turned, there is a general meaning that is ascribed to it by the creator of the deck, but my own intuitive senses and spirit communications bring me varying interpretations specific to each guest. It's amazing how the same card can mean so many different things to different people!" Ann finds, too, that the cards speak uniquely to each individual who comes to her for a session: "My guests gasp or light up when a card comes up that connects to them clearly. The surprise is always fun to watch. I like to ask my guests which card attracted them most and why, and hear their story of how they relate to the artwork. I encourage them to take a photo as a reminder of the reading and the profound meaning they found in it."

As a reader, Ann hopes to help her clients find peace, clarity, and comfort. She wishes to help them through the difficult moments, as well as to help them celebrate their successes and blessings. "Spirit often guides me to share practical ideas and action plans to help clients achieve their goals and work through issues, as well as recommend supporting resources and enlightened teachings to expand a client's knowledge and understanding where it is needed or helpful.

“As a reader, I tend to resonate most deeply people having difficulty with family relationships, especially mothers and children, or connecting with a loved one who has crossed to the spirit realm. Those have been two strong themes in the past few years of my life, and I am coming to believe that God is directing these people to me because I have a wealth of experience and resources that our angels and guides can tap into easily to bring forth into our conversation.”

Coming to Michigan Psychic Fair in 2015, Ann appreciates the opportunity to work with like-minded individuals. “Working at the fairs has immersed me into a world of highly talented spiritual/energy workers. I am continually amazed at the many ways each psychic's' talents come through to help not only their guests, but each other. I appreciate the opportunity to work and learn from such a brilliant array of highly talented psychics deeply connected to Spirit.”
