

Pamela Reader Spotlight

Pamela has a gift for helping people make good decisions quickly. She intuits the information you need to bring the resolution and clarity you seek. She is a certified medium through the United Metaphysical College and has trained and schooled at the renowned Arthur Finley Spiritualist College in Stansted, England. She has been working intuitively and reading for 27 years. Her passion is helping people.

She believes that:

a skilled reading can save a person 20 year of grief. It is also a lot cheaper than counseling your wealth is in your health --- mental, physical and emotional

She reads vibrations but can also use tools such as tarot, runes, & i-ching if the sitter prefers.

She also does Dream Interpretation.

She can give people dates for successful surgeries and a Reiki II Healer.

Pamela is a certified life coach and abundance coach through Coaching Academy of North America and a certified personal trainer through the American Council of Exercise.
